

Helping Promote Animal Welfare (Helping PAW) has been created to provide low cost spay and neuter service for cats and dogs on Long Island and surrounds.

Helping PAW is a non-for profit that will help alleviate the financial strain of being a responsible pet owner and will provide low costs and funds for pet owners on government assistance. Helping PAW will also be conducting humane education and pet owner education classes in the future. Helping to reduce the feral cat population is also a huge part of their efforts.
